PIRATES ATTACK PORTUGUESE SHIP: COMPRADORE HELD FOR RANSOM

VESSEL RELEASED WHEN BRITISH WARSHIP SEEN

Passengers' Valuables And Most Of Cargo Taken

Shanghai, June 19.

The Portuguese coastal steamer Don Pedro arrived in Ningpo at 3 p.m. according to a radio message received in Shanghai from the vessel.

It is confirmed that the ship was pirated and the compradore kidnapped and held for ransom, somewhere on the Chekiang coastal islands for $4,000.

It is understood that the pirates robbed the crew and passengers of their valuables and baggage and took most of the cargo consisting of cigarettes. No one was injured and the vessel was released when the pirates sighted what appeared to be a British warship in the vicinity of Sungmen Island, near Haimen Island, where the attack took place.

The piracy is understood to have taken place when the vessel went aground on June 15, the pirates boarding the ship while the Captain was waiting for high tide to refloat the vessel.

After robbing everyone on board and transferring the cargo to junks the pirates kidnapped the compradore and left the next day.—(Reuter).

EARLIER MESSAGE

Shanghai, June 19.

Considerable anxiety has been aroused in local shipping circles and the Portuguese Consular authorities over the lack of news from the Portuguese coastal steamer Don Pedro as no word was received from her since June 16 when she sailed from Wenchow for Ningpo.

The vessel, commanded by a Portuguese, Captain X. F. Maher, carried 30 passengers, a crew of 30, a Chinese compradore staff of 50 and a valuable cargo of cigarettes, said to be worth $200,000.

The local Portuguese authorities have enlisted the co-operation of the British and American navies and the British cruiser, H.M.S. Adventure, on her way to Wei-hai-wei from Hong Kong has been diverted to search for the missing ship.

According to the owners of the vessel, the China Foreign Steamship Corporation, under normal weather conditions the Don Pedro should have arrived at Ningpo on the afternoon of June 18 but since the previous day she has failed to answer any wireless call signals although she carried wireless operators aboard.

"We have no word from the steamer other than reports from Wenchow fishermen who say that the ship was boarded by pirates shortly after leaving Wenchow. We can only believe that pirates have probably seized the Don Pedro and forced Captain Maher to navigate her to Sungmen Island near Haimen Island," reported the owners.—(Reuter).

JAPANESE DEFEATED AT LINFEN

Kianghsien, Shansi, June 19.

Chinese forces attacking Linfen in Shansi have reached the eastern and southern outskirts where violent fighting is in progress.

On June 16, the beleaguered Japanese troops counter-attacked the Chinese in two columns in an attempt to force a way out. A fierce battle lasting 10 hours was fought at a point about four kilometres east of the city. The Japanese were repulsed.

Pursuing the retreating Japanese, the Chinese advanced to a point only two kilometres east of Linfen.

Chinese mobile units have been actively damaging Japanese communication lines north and south of Linfen in the past few days. As a result, traffic on the Tatung-Puchow Railway has been disrupted.—(Central News).

ABSOLUTE MAJORITY

Dublin, June 19.

Contrary to first impressions that Mr. Eamon de Valera would not secure an absolute majority in the new Dail, election returns for Sunday morning indicate favourable results for the Government Party known as Fianna Fail which has so far obtained 29 seats as against 14 won by the Cosgrave Party, 3 by the Labour Party and 1 by the Independents.—(Transocean).

90,000 JAPANESE TROOPS CHECKED BY THE FLOOD

Hankow, June 19.

While the boom on the Yangtse River is too strong for Japanese warships to pass, Japanese troops landed at Tungliu and Kweichih, near Anking, in an effort to advance westward yesterday towards the Peiping-Hankow Railway.

Heavy fighting is also in progress at Liuan, Tungchen and Chienshan, in west Anhui.

The flood near the Lunghai Railway has held up the movement of some 90,000 Japanese troops, who are now trying desperately to get out of the flooded area.—(International).

PUPPET CHIEF SHOT DEAD IN S'HAI RESTAURANT

Sing-Song Girl Also Killed As Gunmen Enter Private Room

JAPANESE MILITARY OFFICERS AMONG GUESTS ENTERTAINED

Shanghai, June 19.

One of the most daring political murders in Shanghai occurred last night when two Chinese gunmen entered one of the Settlement's best known Chinese restaurants in Foochow Road and shot dead Jen Pao-an, head of the local Japanese sponsored "Tatao Government" Land Bureau, who was entertaining a group of Japanese and Chinese friends.

The gunmen entered the private dining room where the host was dining with his guests and blazed away with Mausers killing Jen and a sing-song girl, and wounding two Chinese guests, after which they threw the guns out of a window and escaped.

Six Japanese nationals, including two high military officers, left the party only a few minutes before the shooting.

Two of the Japanese were still awaiting the arrival of their car when the shooting began but they miraculously escaped.

More than fifteen suspects have been detained by the police for questioning.

Half an hour before the restaurant assassination, three Chinese walked into the private residence of Kan Hi-fong, Dean of Tung Fang University, produced Mausers from beneath their long gowns and opened fire on the Dean and another member of the household. The shots missed the Dean but his friend was wounded in the leg.—(Reuter).

HANKOW EVACUATION DIFFICULTIES

Hankow, June 19.

While Hankow is still busily engaged with the evacuation of women and children to the interior, war refugees from west Anhwei, east Hupeh and north Kiangsu are pouring in at the rate of 8,000 daily, thereby increasing evacuation difficulties.

The latest reports from the front state that the Japanese are now attempting to destroy the powerful boom at Matan, below Kiukiang, by naval and air bombardments.—(Reuter).

MRS. WILLS-MOODY WILL MAKE BID FOR EIGHTH TITLE AT WIMBLEDON

London, June 19.

The tennis championships are starting at Wimbledon tomorrow (Monday) and look once again to be favoured with glorious weather.

The famous tennis meeting this year lacks colourful players like Fred J. Perry, Baron Gottfried von Cramm, W. T. Tilden and Henri Cochet, but nevertheless is expected to draw the usual thousands to the Mecca of world tennis.

If colourful men players are lacking there is strong female talent and it is being called the women's Wimbledon.

Both titles are expected to go to America.

Donald Budge, the present holder and winner of the Australian, American and French titles, is at present not being backed, and is conceded a 1 to 5 chance while H. W. Austin, his closest rival, at 5 to 1 and Roderick Menzel, of Czechoslovakia, at 7 to 1.

There will be keen competition in the women's section between Mrs Helen Wills-Moody who is making a bid for her eighth Wimbledon singles title and who is conceded a 5 to 2 chance, and Miss Alice Marble, who is conceded a 3 to 1 chance. But many are supporting last year's finalist, Mlle. Jedrzejowska, of Poland, who is conceded a 5 to 1 chance of winning the title.—(Reuter).

It is of interest to note that Mrs Wills-Moody was defeated by Mrs. Sperling in the semi-final of the Queen's Club tournament.

Mlle. Jedrzejowska was defeated by Mrs. Dorothy Round-Little in the final last year.

The title holders are as follows:

Men's Singles: J. D. Budge (U.S.A.).

Ladies' Singles: Mrs. D. Little (nee Dorothy Round) (G.B.).

Men's Doubles: J. D. Budge and G. Mako (U.S.A.).

MR. COLSON HAS FORTUNATE ESCAPE

MR. A.W. RAYMOND'S TWO SUCCESSES

A SPLENDID DAY'S RACING at the Areia Preta Macao, yesterday afternoon was marred by an accident in the first race resulting in Voltaire having to be destroyed.

Shortly after the start of the race, Voltaire, owned by Mr. Davis, and ridden by Mr. A. F. D. Colson, had a nasty accident breaking both the pasterns of the forelegs so that his fetlock joints were on the ground. The horse had to be destroyed.

It appears that Voltaire was suffering from a disease called big-dead. A theory is advanced that horses here should be given a lot more lime in their drinking water.

Mr. Colson was fortunate to escape unscathed.

The most successful rider of the meeting was Mr. A. W. Raymond who gained first places on Merry Maker and Fairy Auk, while Mr. Chanson had a first, a second and a third place.

The Ladies' event was won by Miss Lois Fearon (Astrik) with Miss B. Fair second and Miss Joan Old third.

Fine weather favoured the meeting and although it was hot there was a pleasant breeze. Good racing was witnessed.

LENIENT VIEW TAKEN

Post Office officials were puzzled as to why a few air-mail letters for the U.S.A. had not the correct amount in postage stamps affixed, although there were traces on the letters of stamps that had been removed. The letters bore no senders' address and consequently could not be traced.

Eventually, a letter with postage stamps removed came to the hands of the postal authorities and it bore the sender's address, written on the envelope.

This led to the arrest of Ma Kwong-sang, postman, who was charged with the theft of three air-mail letters which were found on his person. A search of his lodgings by the police resulted in the discovery of a cigarette tin containing $6.60 in stamps which, although unused, showed traces of having been attached to paper. Three dollars in stamps were also found gummed-on to what appeared to be air-mail envelope paper.

Appearing at the Kowloon Court yesterday before Mr. Barnett on the charge of theft of the three air-mail letters, Ma Kwong-sang was sentenced to six months imprisonment with hard labour. Mr. E. Wynne-Jones, Postmaster-General, appeared as complainant.

In sentencing defendant Mr. Barnett said that defendant was fortunate in the fact that the prosecution had not wished him committed to he Criminal Sessions, as he would have received a much more severe sentence had this been the case.

RESENTED AN ACCUSATION

So He Chopped The Man!

On June 5 Wong Chap-yau accused Wong Wai Wut of the theft of his coat, valued at one dollar. Wong Chap-yau was an apprentice to a box-maker, Wong Wai Wut an acquaintance of the same box-maker. The box-maker had workshops at No. 5 and at No. 28 Pilkem Street.

On June 11 Wong Wai Wut resented the accusation made six days previously, picked up a heavy axe, approached Wong Chap-yau. Wong Chap-yau showed his heels, towards No. 28 Pilkem Street from No. 5 Pilkem Street. Wong Wai Wut was the faster man and he managed to inflict two wounds on Wong Chap-yau, before the latter reached No. 26. One wound was on the cheek, the other on the thigh.

Wong Chap-yau was admitted to the Kowloon Hospital, spent one week there and had to pay $3.50 in hospital fees. The blow on his cheek just fell short of piercing an artery, which might have resulted in death.

Appearing before Mr. Q.A.A. Macfadyen at the Kowloon Court on Saturday on a charge of maliciously wounding Wong Chap-yau, Wong Wai-wut was sentenced to four months imprisonment with hard labour and ordered to pay the expenses of Wong Chap-yau's treatment in hospital.

CAUGHT WITH A GOOD HAUL

A sentence of six months with hard labour was imposed by Mr. Macfadyen at the Kowloon Court on Saturday on Li Hung-kwan, arrested on information after he had committed a burglary at No. 2 Grascoigne Road, the residence of Mr. I. B. Trevor.

The total value of the articles stolen is estimated at $1250. These articles include eight pieces of silver-ware, twenty-one spoons, two Dunhill pipes, one felt hat and one cigarette case.

Defendant is to be recommended for banishment. Sub-Inspector O'Donovan prosecuted.

NO PASSPORTS

Arthur Oscar Fisher, a merchant residing at Peninsula Hotel, was fined $15 by Mr. Lockhart Smith at the Central Court on Saturday for entering the Colony without a valid passport. Fisher said he was told in Shanghai that there was no necessity for a passport to enter Hong Kong.

Defendant is a native of Czechoslovakia.

Miyan Gull, 40, a native of India, was fined $25 or one month's imprisonment for entering the Colony without a passport. An expulsion order was made against him.

China's "Juliet" In Her Last Tragedy

The "Juliet" of China and her troupe of 25 Chinese amateur dramatic players have been missing since the withdrawal of Chinese troops from Hsuchow on the southern Shantung front.

Miss Yu Peishan, of Shanghai, became known as "Juliet" of China when she scored a success on the stage in Shanghai as heroine of Shakespeare's famous play "Romeo and Juliet." The play in Chinese version was staged by the Shanghai Chinese Amateur Dramatic Club of which she was a member.

In beauty and charm, she equalled the immortal Juliet whom she impersonated. Off the stage, she was courted by many a Romeo who needed not to turn to Shakespeare for his poetry. So her life in Shanghai had been bright until the outbreak of Sino-Japanese hostilities on August 13 last.

Then the Shanghai Chinese Amateur Dramatic Club broke up into several troupes venturing out to different places to give dramatic performances, saturated with war themes, to Chinese civilians and soldiers. Most active was the troupe in which Miss Yu was a member. With that troupe, she played the role of a woman patriot rallying to her country's resistance against Japanese invasion.

Her troupe, led by Mr. Cheng Chun-li, who before the war was a well-known movie actor, left Shanghai during the withdrawal of the Chinese troops from that sector in November. The long journey, halting at each important centre to stage a play, ended in Hankow where the troupe later joined the Political Affairs Department of the National Military Council.

Under the banner of the Political Affairs Department the troupe, consisting of the same players except the leader, Cheng Chun-li, who had joined the war-time Chinese movie colony in Hankow, was sent to Hsuchow—centre of the northeastern war zone—in April to carry on patriotic propaganda.

The "Juliet" of China, with six other actresses and eighteen actors in the troupe braved the constant peril of aerial bombing to keep the morale of Chinese soldiers on the southern Shantung front at a high ebb through dramatic performances. With considerable heroism, they refused to evacuate on the last train from Hsuchow.

Then the life-line to the west was put out of operation and perpetual bombings made life in Hsuchow fearful for the few remaining war workers and soldiers. Her friends fear that "Juliet" has been the heroine of her last tragedy—(C.I.C.).

THIRTY YEARS OF THE SHANGHAI Y.W.C.A.

Pageant Of Service Mark Well-Attended Anniversary

FROM OUR SHANGHAI CORRESPONDENT

The Shanghai branch of Y.W.C.A. observed the 30th anniversary of its foundation on June 10 by throwing open its doors to some 600 members and friends, when the highlights of its history and the present activities of the organisation were presented in the vivid form of a Pageant of Service.

Having established its first women's centre in Shanghai thirty years ago, the Y.W.C.A. has since spread its branches throughout China. At present there are 18 city associations, 4 rural sections and 85 student groups.

Miss Mary Ting veteran member and first Chinese secretary of the Association, was not only present, but participated, in conjunction with other junior co-workers, in presenting scenes dating back to 1908 and describing difficulties with which they then met in their efforts of service to the community.

At that early period the work was necessarily limited to preaching Christianity and promoting social reforms, such as prevention of feet-binding, women's education etc., and only after the Revolution of 1911 did it become possible to organise a programme of activities covering a larger field of women's interests and social amendment.

PRACTICAL METHODS

To meet the exigencies of the period of unrest following the outbreak of Revolution, the Y.W.C.A. in Shanghai put forward the scheme of practical training for women. Classes in first aid and more advanced medical knowledge helped them join the rank of Red Cross workers. A refugee girls' hostel was opened and physical education and training in leadership were offered free to all women.

From 1915 to the present period the Y.W.C.A. in Shanghai was in process of expansion. The Women's Club was established with a view to providing proper recreation for women, and new arrivals in this city were offered the help of a special travel service. Mothers were given the opportunity to study nutrition and the bringing up of children. A half-day school for girls and classes for women workers began to function in 1917 and in 1919 groups of married women were organised to study family and social problems.

During the World War, when new industries sprang up in Shanghai and consequently women and child labour greatly increased, the Y.W.C.A. started a campaign against their exploitation and was instrumental in collecting interesting information as to conditions then prevailing.

Among other innovations of this period, the most interesting were the opening of the Chinese Women's Hostel and the inauguration of the International Branch of the Shanghai Y.W.C.A.

EMERGENCY SERVICE

Since the commencement of the Sino-Japanese hostilities the Y.W.C.A. in Shanghai has been working on a war-time basis, co-ordinating immediate relief work with educational and social activities. Besides running two refugee camps, it has been engaged in securing and distributing milk to refugee babies in other camps and taking care of pregnant women with the co-operation of maternity hospitals.

Relief work for students and industrial workers has been given an equal amount of attention, and it is surprising indeed that all other regular services and activities of the Association are being carried on as smoothly as ever.

Among the latter the most important is the management of three Chinese women's hostels and two industrial schools for factory girls, in which the enrolment has recently reached the figure of 250. Other activities include promotion of all summer sports, classes in any special branch of knowledge in which a sufficient number of members is interested, the Business Girls' Club, the Special Students' Department and many others.

INTERNATIONAL BRANCH

Fifteen years ago, in recognition of the need of a foreign women's centre in Shanghai, the Foreign Y.W.C.A. was opened. In 1930 it joined the Y.W.C.A. of Shanghai as its International Branch, and since then its work has been incorporated into the activities of this organisation.

In carrying out its programme the International Branch keeps in touch with all national women's organisations in Shanghai through the Joint Committee of Shanghai Women's Organisations.

The project of opening a residential club for foreign girls, which has been contemplated for years, has been realized at last. The International Branch secured the approval of the Joint Committee in finding the premises suitable for a women's hostel, and the opening is to be announced shortly. The number of those who wish to enroll has already surpassed the maximum which the new hostel is able to accommodate.

BAIL ESTREATED

Sergey E. Lavrov, 35, an American, had his bail of $25 estreated yesterday when he failed to appear before Mr. Lockhart Smith to answer the charge of breach of Registration Ordinance.

Lavroy left for Hankow by plane and did not make the necessary report to the authorities.

FREE SCHOOLING FOR CHINA'S SOLDIERS

Children of China's dead or wounded heroes will receive special financial aid from the Government for their schooling under legislation approved recently by the Executive Yuan.

Under the new law, which is one of many devised in appreciation of those bearing arms for the defence of the nation, the children of men killed or wounded in action may petition the Government for such help as their particular circumstances may warrant.

The special aid will be granted in one of three forms. Firstly, the children may receive free tuition, lecture and laboratory work, board, lodging, books, stationery and clothing. Secondly, they may be given only free tuition, board and lodging. And lastly, they may be relieved of payments of tuition, lecture fees and experiment fees only.

The privilege may be taken away from the recipients, however, if they are expelled for misbehaviour, or incompetence, or if they lose of their Chinese citizenship.

The Investigating Committee for the Granting of Government Financial Aid to Children of the Honour Battalion, organized under the law, is in charge of making the grants in the universities, colleges and other institutions of higher learning.

A similar committee, organized under the provincial governments, will make the grants in the middle schools and other primary and secondary schools.

The promulgation of the law by the Government is in line with public and private measures adopted for the aid of China's soldiers. In the matter of education, for instance, children of men at the front are the first ones to be admitted into schools.

Dependents of soldiers are exempt from menial labour and in case of necessity they are permitted to defer paying land taxes.

Privileges granted by private organizations to the soldiers and their dependents are typified by the rules of co-operative societies in Kiangsi which, extending loans to farmers, pick the families of national defenders for their first attention.—(C.I.C.).

Important Developments In British Civil Air Transport

NEW HIGH-PERFORMANCE PLANES ARE BEING BUILT

Important developments in British civil air transport, to materialize in the near future, were foreshadowed by Sir Kingsley Wood to the House of Commons in his first speech as Secretary of State for Air. Four main spheres in which progress would receive every official encouragement were outlined, involving augmentation of the state subsidy paid to air transport undertakings from £1,500,000 to £3 millions a year.

First point reviewed by the Minister related to the betterment of the Empire services, for which the greater part of £1,000,000 will be available. Present services are to be speeded up considerably and new services opened in cooperation with companies in the Dominions.

Especial attention is to be directed to establishment of services to Canada and the development of extra Australia-New Zealand services. Sir Kingsley Wood said that further discussions were pending with Australian ministers and representatives of the New Zealand government.

Furtherance of the trans-Pacific project and aerial development within the West Indies are under active consideration while plans are also in preparation for local services in Great Britain and external connecting services with all parts of the Empire.

The need to uphold British prestige in the face of vigorous competition from heavily subsidized foreign air lines prompts the projected establishment of a "first-class" service between London and the principal European capitals. Sir Kingsley Wood stated that a sum of £400,000 would be devoted to these services. He continued:

SIR KINGSLEY WOOD

"Daily British services already operate to Paris, Brussels, Stockholm, Copenhagen and, in the summer months, to Basle. Rome is regularly served by the Empire route. It is now planned to establish additional daily services to Berlin, Amsterdam, Prague, Vienna, Budapest, Oslo and Lisbon and to operate throughout the year to Switzerland. Few of the capitals of Europe will thus be outside the projected network, and it is hoped to extend that even further still."

NEW AIRLINERS

International and commercial agreements will be negotiated to bring about the improved and new services. The government desire that these new developments, and indeed every route flown by British operators, shall depend exclusively on the use of British aircraft.

The Minister referred to new high-performance aeroplanes which are under construction. Among them he mentioned "a promising type of medium all-metal airliner"—the de Havilland D.H.95 high-wing twin-engined monoplane, which is designed to carry 12 to 18 passengers at a cruising speed of more than 200 miles an hour. Deliveries of the first of this new transport craft are expected early in 1939; the Air Ministry desire to accelerate its production and to have it in service as quickly as possible.

"HEAVY MACHINE"

Looking farther ahead, Sir Kingsley Wood stated that definite proposals had been invited from constructors for design and manufacture of a "heavy machine," capable, for example, of carrying ten passengers for 1,800 miles and suitable for direct flights to such cities as Berlin, Copenhagen and Lisbon.

A successor to the de Havilland Albatross—four-enged 210 m.p.h. monoplane, two of which have been built to Air Ministry order for experimental transatlantic airmail flights—is envisaged for flights over the North and South Atlantic or direct from London to Alexandria.

The Government propose subsidies aggregating £100,000 annually, to approved companies to place Britain's internal air services on a sound basis. This grant will be directed to facilitate extensions of present services and to stimulate new enterprises.

The amount of grant apportioned to individual companies will be dependent on the number of approved British aircraft they use and the efficiency with which they operate their services. A further important provision is that "so far as practicable," 75 per cent. of the pilots employed shall be enrolled in the Air Force Reserve.

Women For War Work

CANTON FAIR SEX JOIN UP

(From Our Own Correspondent)

Canton, June 18.

A number of able-bodied women who have completed military training, police and first aid work left here on Friday for the interior to instruct young women on similar duties as part of the national defence system.

Many women here prefer to take part in military activities and outdoor life in their effort to render public service. Many of them are graduates from middle schools and vocational institutes.

General Yu Hon-mou and Governor Wu Te-chen have assumed their concurrent posts as commander and executive officer of the Air Defence of Kwangtung. They will, among other things push the sale of the $15,000,000 provincial defence bonds. The entire amount is expected to be realized by the end of this month.

Government employees and professors in Government universities have contributed a half-month's salary for the purchase of these bonds. A sum of $5,000,000 will be added from the sale of liberty bonds, and the total amount of $30,000,000 will be available for improving the defence of this province.

There will probably be a permanent air force stationed in Canton, and up-to-date anti-aircraft guns will be used. The fighters which shot down four or five Japanese bombers yesterday were sent down from Central China to protect the Canton-Hankow Railway. They move about from day to day to avoid being located by enemy planes.

Japanese handbills dropped here failed to interest the people. They are mostly reactionary in nature, telling the people to support a traitorous regime. Some of the leaflets threaten further bombing of this city on a big scale.

FRIENDS OF MUSIC

"Allegro Moderato,"
Hong Kong Daily Press

Your idea of organizing the "Friends of Music" deserves support by all interested in the musical life of this Colony, and I suggest that some one should work for a meeting of all concerned, particularly of the teaching body, to see the possibilities of laying the foundations of the above-mentioned organization.

Wishing you all success in your venture,

ONE INTERESTED.

THE WEEK IN MACAO

(From Our Own Correspondent)

Macao, June 19.

Filming Macao for a coloured travelogue film are Messrs. Palmer Miller and Curtis Nagel, Hollywood photographers, who are spending a few days in the Portuguese Colony picking out her scenic highlights. Both cameramen plan to take in Hong Kong on their next job.

CORPUS CHRISTI

The feast of Corpus Christi was celebrated here last Thursday by a religious procession as in previous years. Large crowds assembled at the recently-opened Se Cathedral, the starting point of the processional route.

SWIMMING TRAGEDY

Death from drowning was the fate of 25-year old Chan Leong Kan when he was seized with cramp while swimming in the Porto Exterior last Tuesday afternoon. His companions, who were in a row-boat nearby, were unable to reach him in time to save him.

HONEYMOONERS

Honeymooning in Macao are Mr. and Mrs. A. P. da Silva recently married Hong Kong residents. Mrs. Silva, nee Miss Ismeria Ozorio, is the daughter of the late Dr. F. M. B. Ozorio, of Hong Kong, while her husband is connected with the Hong Kong and Shanghai Bank.

TRAFFIC CONTROL

Further improvements in the traffic control system were introduced in Macao recently in keeping with other progressive schemes. Car parking lines were laid out in the main city sections last week, especially in Avenida Almeida Ribero.

BENEFIT SHOW

Rehearsals are going full swing for a concert show which is to be presented by the officers, N.C.O.'s and men of the Portuguese sloop Goncalho Velho at the Dom Pedro Theatre in the early part of July. The proceeds of the show are slated for the Macao Salesian Institute.

A.R.P. LECTURES

A lecture on Air Raid Precaution will be given at the Helena May Institute on Tuesday, June 20, and on every subsequent Tuesday until further notice.

All interested are kindly invited to note the dates, and all are welcome.

MUSICAL REVIEW OF THE WEEK

BY "ALLEGRO MODERATO"

We have great satisfaction in publishing in another column a letter written by one who is interested in what we have been writing about lately. Fusion of all artistic elements is, we admit, quite hard work, but perhaps we could start as soon as possible on the formation of the "Friends of Music." After that, we can then turn our attention to the other work, and we do not mind stating that we need all the co-operation we can get from all concerned.

A contributor to another paper was kind enough to take up this idea and we wish to express our appreciation for his interest.

ELVIE YUEN

To our mind, and notwithstanding differences in opinion, the best dramatic soprano in the Colony is Miss Elvie Yuen. She has a very rich voice, mellow but full of power.

However, her recent broadcasts have been slightly marred by injudicious choice of programmes. Sometime ago she sang two contralto arias, and again pieces which were definitely too light for her voice. The last broadcast was particularly unhappy in that the three Italian songs she chose were too light.

Of the two Grieg songs 'In the boat' was only passable. The result was that full justice was done neither to the songs nor to Miss Yuen's own beautiful voice which, being restrained, was detrimental to her higher register.

Singers should remember that to sing songs which are unsuited to the voice is like wearing shoes which are either too big or too small. The result is obvious! Our critique should not be taken in a bad spirit, as it is prompted by our desire to see due success accorded to one endowed with undoubted gifts.

ALBERT BARTON

Tuesday's broadcast was pleasant. The choice of music was not particularly good, either by pianist or singer, and did not move the listener much. Barton sounded particularly pleasant in the last but one item, "Live for Today." If he will lend more care to his top register he will surely progress.

MRS. NEIL MATHIESON

We are sure that those who are interested in modern English compositions would have enjoyed the programme given by this artiste on Wednesday, which included music by Armstrong Gibbs, Quilter and Bridge. She sang with the usual skill typical of such an old stager.

ZBW ORCHESTRA

In the second official appearance of the ZBW Orchestra some old favourites like Luigini's Ballet Egyptienne and English Dances by Cyril Scott were played. The orchestra struck the happy medium in this broadcast. The pieces were neither too highbrow nor too lowbrow. The performance was certainly an improvement on the previous one, and will soon be a real asset to ZBW.

D'AQUINO, TALBOT AND O'NEIL SHAW

We enjoyed Friday's programme, notwithstanding many minor faults. The aria from 'Barbiere'. 'Se il mio nome' was sung by Gaston d'Aquino with his usual skill, but we know he could have done better. Harry Talbot's offering, 'Even the Bravest Heart' from 'Faust' showed some improvement in his singing, but there is still a certain hardness in his voice and his delivery is lacking finish. Perhaps more care about breath control will help. In the duets, the voices were not blending all the time particularly in "Ah! Mimi" from 'Boheme! The best of the lot was, we think, the Spanish number.

CONCERT

The public is reminded that the Choral and Orchestral Group with the support of the Orchestra of the Conte Rosso and directed by Maestro E. Gualdi, is giving an al fresco concert at the Kowloon Tong Club on Saturday. The proceeds from this concert will go towards relief of war refugees.

The first part of this concert will consist of a big Fantasia of the opera "Rigoletto," including the most popular pieces. The second part will be varied and will consist of intrumental and solos vocal and choral items.

WHO TOLD YOU THAT?

"Waitress," snapped the impatient customer, "will the spaghetti I ordered be long?"

"I don't know, sir," replied the girl brightly, "we never measure it."

BETTER VALUE THAN EVER

The Gillette No. 77 Set illustrated here, which contains the latest Gillette razor, three Blue Gillette slotted blades and two blade holders in a new type of moulded box, has these definite advantages.

The razor is made in two pieces instead of three, as formerly, thus making it easier and quicker to clean, assemble and use.

The blades are made by the new electrical-tempering process. They give not only closer, cleaner shaves than you have ever had before, but also more shaves per blade.

The case is ideal for hot and humid climates as it is so easy to keep clean.

Ask your dealer to show you a No. 77 Set—one of the most popular that Gillette have ever made.

SHIGERU YOSHIDA ANSWERED

Anti-Japanese Feeling In China Japan's Fault

Canton, June 18.

Commenting on the statement made by Mr. Shigeru Yoshida, Japanese Ambassador in London, to the China Campaign Committee that the "Japanese Government found it necessary to destroy the anti-Japanese movement in China," an official spokesman here told Reuter today that the only way to end the anti-Japanese movement in China is for Japan to give up her policy of aggression.

The spokesman declared that the Chinese harboured no hostile feelings against any foreign nation which treated them on a basis of equality.

If an anti-Japanese sentiment existed in China at all, it was Japan's own fault.

It is only too obvious that China cannot be friends with a country which is seeking to conquer her.

"As a matter of fact," said the spokesman, "we are not even hostile against the Japanese people, but we have been resisting the Japanese militarists' aggression.

"As long as Japan continues her ruthless aggression in China, we shall fight with all our strength and resources for the safeguarding of our national freedom and independence."

TANAKA POLICY

Referring to the Japanese Ambassador's statement that the Japanese forces had been "forced reluctantly to go on to Shanghai and Nanking and now to Canton," the spokesman pointed out that it must be obvious to the whole world that in invading China, Japan is endeavouring to carry out her Continental policy as formulated by the late Premier Tanaka.

"The present war on China is no mere incident. Six years ago the Japanese armies attacked and seized Manchuria and later Jehol. Last year Japan started her military campaign in North China and then Central China. Having occupied the Northern and Central Provinces, she now extends her operations to South China.

FIXED AIM

"This is all in accordance with her fixed policy and her programme of conquest.

"Japan's present aim is undoubtedly to subjugate China and become master of Asia, but it is not altogether unlikely that if she succeeded in obtaining control of the whole of China, she will push her war of conquest beyond the Asian borders and seek to become the master of the whole world," the spokesman concluded.—(Reuter).

Manchurian Frontier Clash

RUSSIANS ENGAGE PATROL

Tokyo, June 19.

It is semi-officially announced here that a Manchurian Frontier Patrol, consisting of some twenty men, was attacked by a Soviet-Russian detachment at Hongchung, on the frontier between the Soviet Union and Manchukuo on Friday.

A shooting affray ensued in the course of which, reinforcements were rushed to both sides. The engagement lasted some twenty minutes.

Detailed information regarding the outcome of the engagement is lacking but it is stated that one Manchurian was killed and another wounded.

The body of the Manchurian soldier who fell during the shooting was, it is alleged, carried off by the Soviet Russians.—(Transocean)

KWANGCHOW DEFENCES

FRANCE PREPARES

Tokyo, June 18.

France is building extensive fortifications in the Kwangchow territory of South China which belongs to her, declares the Tokyo Nishi Nishi.

The paper asserts that during the past few days France landed large quantities of war materials at Kwangchow Bay which is at the northern end of Hainan island.

Regarding the fall of Canton as inevitable the French, according to the paper, are preparing for the defence of Kwangchow through an installation of search lights, anti-aircraft guns and the improvement of the roads. The paper declares that Kwangchow is being made into a second Hong Kong.—(Transocean).

ALL BECAUSE OF A PENALTY

Paris, June 19.

The Board of the International Football Federation, sitting in Paris, has rejected the appeal made by the manager of the Brazilian football team against the decision of the Swiss referee, Wuethrich, who awarded a penalty kick against the Brazilian team in their match against Italy which the latter won by the odd goal in three.

The manager of the Brazilian team has cabled his own Federation asking them to withdraw from the International Federation —(Transocean).

REPORT DENIED

Bordeaux, June 19.

The manager of the Brazilian national football team which was elminated from the World Football Cup by Italy has issued a denial of the report that he had cabled to Rio de Janeiro asking the withdrawal of Brazil from the International Football Federation.

The world football cup final will be fought out in Paris on Sunday between Italy and Hungary.—(Transocean).

KING CAROL IN ISTANBUL

Istanbul, June 19.

The Royal Rumanian Yacht Luceafarul, has been lying at anchor in Istanbul Harbour since Saturday morning. King Carol of Rumania paid an incognito visit ashore in the afternoon and made a sightseeing tour of the city.

It is not yet known whether King Carol has paid an unofficial visit to the Turkish President Ata Tuerk, who is at present on his yacht, the Savarona, also anchored in Istanbul harbour.—(Transocean).

TENSION AT NAMOA

Swatow, June 18.

The Chinese garrison at Namoa, an island off the east Kwangtung coast, is taking strict precautions against nine Japanese warships which arrived last night.

The Japanese bluejackets who recently landed on Kweilung Island, off the coast of Hoifung, have been withdrawn and the eight Japanese warships anchored off the coast have also departed.—(Central News).

Exodus From Sanjak

UNCERTAINTY CAUSES ANXIETY

Jerusalem, June 19.

Reports received here state that tension in the Sanjak has been accentuated by the fact that a large number of the Turkish inhabitants have been supplied with arms.

Messages assert that the arms, which were brought from Turkey, were issued with the approval of the French authorities.

According to well-informed quarters the majority of the male Turkish inhabitants have been given army rifles which they are using in clashes with the Arabs and Armenians.

LEADERS MISSING

Another two leaders of the non-Turkish minorities, Arab and Armenian, are said to be missing and it is feared that they have been abducted by political enemies.

Although the French High Commissioner has denied that a contingent of Turkish troops, equal in strength to the French garrison, would enter Sanjak on Sunday—as certain foreign newspaper correspondents had asserted—the exodus of Armenian and Arab inhabitants into Syria continues unabated as the uncertainty of the situation has given rise to all sorts of rumours.—(Transocean).

RESERVISTS "DEMOBBED"

Prague, June 19.

The following communique was issued here early on Saturday afternoon:—

"The reservists which were called to colours at the end of May for special manoeuvres were demobilised during the last few days. The training of the reservists is now being carried out normally."

Commenting on the situation the Berlin correspondent of the Deutscher Dienst states that the demobilisation in Czecho-Slovakia which was announced in Prague must, from a legal point of view, take place after four week's from the date of mobilisation.

The correspondent added that the purpose for which the reservists were called up had been fulfilled.—(Transocean).

FRENCH AND TURKISH TROOPS FOR SANJAK

Antioch, June 18.

Equal numbers of French and Turkish troops will march into the Sanjak territory to-morrow or Monday, this having been decided in the course of a conference which has been going on during the past several days between French officers and the Turkish military commission.

It was moreover decided that the high commissioner of the Sanjak shall be a Frenchman and the Governor of the Sanjak a Turk. The Arabs have been excluded from all high offices.

Both French and Turkish troops will be under French officers. The Turkish military commission will remain in Antioch until the arrival of the Turkish troops.—(Transocean).

COMMENDATION FROM GENERALISSIMO

Kweichih, June 18.

Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek and General Ho Ying-chin, Minister of War, have issued telegrams of commendation for the staunch resistance put up by the Chinese troops against the Japanese seeking to land on the south bank of Yangtze River. It is learned from military circles.

After the repulsion of the Japanese who landed at Tatukow, opposite Anking, Tatung, 60 miles above Wuhu, Laotouchow above Tungling, and other points, the south bank of the Yangtze is now cleared of Japanese troops. During "mopping up" operations in the last few days, many remnant Japanese soldiers were captured alive.—(Central News).

READING OF THE BIBLE

Rev. Frank Short Preaches At Cathedral

His Excellency the Governor, and Lady Northcote attended Mattins at St. John's Cathedral yesterday, Bible Commemoration Sunday

The Preacher was the Rev. Frank Short of the British and Foreign Bible Society, who spoke of the Bible and of the history of its translation into the English language and into other languages.

At the London showrooms of the British and Foreign Bible Society there are on view the texts of the New and of the Old Testaments in more than seventy different languages!

A Bible may be bought in Hong Kong for only 75 cents. These 75 cents are considered recompence for the toil of hundreds of men through 19 centuries. These men sacrificed years of their lives and even paid with their lives at the stake for but one purpose—that the Bible would be in the home of every individual man.

A RECENT BOOK

This aim is yet to be accomplished, and the attitude of the general public towards reading of the Bible does not appear to be very promising. However, a recent book that became a best-seller was the "Bible—Designed to be read as literature"! Thus in this new age and in this new generation interest is again awakening in the reading of a very old book.

Today a luncheon will be held at the Hong Kong Hotel to commemorate the Fourth Centenary of the Reformation of the English Bible. This Excellency the Governor and Lady Northcote will attend.

WEDDING AT THE CATHEDRAL

MR. F.A. HUTCHINSON AND MISS SHIRAZEE

The wedding took place at the St. John's Cathedral on Saturday between Mr Frederick A. Hutchinson and Miss Lucy Shirazee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Shirazee, of Shanghai. The Dean of the Cathedral, Very Rev. J. L. Wilson, officiated at the ceremony.

The bride wore a dress of power blue French crepe and carried a bouquet of tuberoses.

Mrs. M. Henderson was the matron of honour.

Mr. Thomas Hutchinson discharged the duties of best man.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the Indian Recreation Club following which the happy couple left for their honeymoon which is being spent at Repulse Bay Hotel. Mrs. Frederick Hutchinson's going-away costume was of blue embroidered Irish linen.

APPOINTMENTS

The following appointments have been made by His Excellency the Governor:—

Dr. Agnes Lilias Jenkins Dovey and Dr. Louise Olivia Hunter, to be official Justices of the Peace.

Mr. Geoffrey Terrell Balean, M.R.C.S. (Eng.), L.R.C.P. (Lond.), D.T.M. and H. (Lond.), to be Lieutenant in the Hong Kong Volunteer Defence Corps;

Frances Stout, M.B., Ch.B. (Edin.), to be Health Officer, with effect from June 18.

ONE NEW CASE OF CHOLERA

One new case of cholera was recorded during the 24 hours ended midnight Friday. Other diseases notified were two cases of enteric fever, six cases of dysentery, two cases of cerebro-spinal meningitis and one case of measles.

SOLDIER KILLED IN CRASH

LORRY SOMERSAULTS OVER ROAD

L/Cpl. Alfred Lawlor, Middlesex Regiment, was killed when a military truck on which he was riding, in company with a party of his colleagues, somersaulted off Customs Pass Road, near the Kowloon Dairy, early on Saturday morning.

L/Sergt. Marshall and L/Cpl Williams were seriously injured and are now in the Military Hospital while L/Cpl. Morrish was allowed to leave after he had had his injuries attended to.

The driver of the truck, Pte. Bullen, only sustained superficial injuries. It is understood that the occupants of the trucks, eight in number, were returning to barracks after exercises in the Junk Bay district.

It is understood that the accident was discovered by the occupants of a passing car who reported the matter to the Kowloon City Police Station.

TRUCK SKIDDED

Cause of the accident has not yet been ascertained but it is believed that due to the greasy surface of the road the truck skidded from one side of the road to the other before toppling over the side, coming to rest some 30 feet below.

Some of the party fell clear as the truck rolled down the bank and fortunately escaped injury, but L/Cpl. Lawlor, L/Sgt. Marshall, L/Cpl. Williams, L/Cpl. Morrish and Pte. Bullen, accompanied the truck in its wild plunge.

Lawlor was trapped under the truck and is believed to have been killed instantly. Marshall and Williams suffered severe injuries.

After first-aid had been administered, the injured men were removed to hospital and a Military Court of Inquiry immediately summoned.

It is learned that the truck was recovered later in the afternoon.

L/Cpl. Lawlor, who is survived by his father at Kennington, London, will be buried this afternoon with full military honours.

FULL MILITARY HONOURS

The funeral took place at the Protestant Cemetery yesterday of L/Cpl. Alfred Lawlor, who died under tragic circumstances on Saturday morning when a military truck containing a party of N.C.Os. from the Middlesex Regt. somersaulted off Custom's Pass Road.

Full military honours were accorded a party from "A" Coy., Middlesex Regt. being present.

The Rev. Captain Staunton, Chaplain to the Forces, officiated at the graveside and wreaths were sent by the following:—

THE COLONY'S FINANCES

Year's Surplus May Be A Record

Hong Kong may end 1938 with a record surplus balance as indications are that the revenue for the first four months of the financial year totalling $12,172,288, will be maintained.

The estimated revenue of $30,254,020 is likely to be exceeded by at least $5,000,000, while the estimated expenditure of $33,379,549 will most likely not be reached.

Expenditure for the month of April was $2,698,630 and for the first four months of the year $10,648,982.

Revenue for April was $3,321,036. For the first four months of the year revenue exceeds expenditure by $1,523,306.

RAILWAY REVENUE BUOYANT

The Kowloon Canton Railway revenue continues most buoyant, and with eight month's of the financial year yet to run, the estimated revenue of $1,044,900 is already within sight, revenue for the first four months totalling $678,633, compared with $409,182 in the corresponding period last year.

Post Office revenue is also buoyant, totalling $954,864 for the first four months of the year, as compared with $868,010 in the corresponding period in 1937.

INCREASED EXPENDITURE

On the Expenditure side, heavy increases have been recorded by the following departments

| | Jan.-Apr. 1937 | Jan.-Apr. 1938 |
|---|---|---|
| Harbour Department | $278,749 | $376,950 |
| Medical Department | 603,959 | 766,145 |
| Education Department | 794,137 | 886,902 |
| Kowloon-Canton Railway | 241,122 | 362,349 |
| Charitable Services | 140,995 | 189,910 |
| Pensions | 938,921 | 958,548 |

It is believed that the expenditure under all these headings, especially Civil Service Pensions, Kowloon Canton Railway and Medical Department will greatly exceed the estimated expenditure. Expenditure on pensions will probably constitute an all-time record.

The Colony's excess of assets over liabilities has been further increased as the result of buoyant revenue and on May 1 stood at $15,525,583, the highest surplus recorded for many years.

SUCCESSFUL SALE OF FLOWERS

Over $4,736 was collected on Saturday when a street sale of flowers was held by the Chinese Chamber of Commerce of Tung Koon District, to raise funds for the free schools run under its auspices.

Miss Chan Ching-han, daughter of Mr. Chan Lan-fong, chairman of the Chamber, brought in $1,023.40, the highest individual amount collected.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

The 110th meeting of the Board of Education was held on Thursday, in the Board Room of the Education Department.

There were present:—

Director of Education, Mr. G. R. Sayer, B.A., (Chairman), Senior Inspector of English Schools, Mr C. G. Sollis, M.A., Inspector of Vernacular schools, Mr. Y. P. Law, B.A., Rev. Fr. G. Byrne, S.J., Ph.D., Major H. H. Joseph, B.A., Mr. Li Tsz-fong, Rev. C. B. R. Sargent, M.A., Mr. D. J. Sloss, C.B.E., M.A., Mr. J. Ralston (Secretary).

The Board considered the Director's proposals of expenditure in 1939.

Get rid of Disfiguring Blemishes this Easy Way

Nothing can be more distracting to a woman than ugly pimples, burning irritations or patches of blackheads or enlarged pores on the face or neck. Some resort to heavy powdering in an effort to hide them; whilst others cause the skin to become muddy-looking, coarse and blemished by using the wrong treatment.

To make your skin clear and healthy, to cleanse clogged facial pores, remove blackheads and pimples and to make your complexion clearer and smoother, use Cuticura.

Cleanse the skin with Cuticura Soap twice a day. Its luxuriant and mildly antiseptic lather is soothing and softening; washes away pore-deep dirt which causes blackheads, enlarged pores and ugly complexion defects.

To rid the skin of pimples, skin outbreaks, rashes or irritations use Cuticura Ointment direct on the affected part before washing with the soap. Its antiseptic action kills germs, soothes and heals and quickly clears the skin.

Madrid, June 19.

A bulletin issued by the Republican War Ministry on Saturday night states that on the Levant front severe fighting still continues in the neighbourhood of Villareal and that the Red militia succeeded in repulsing enemy attacks on the villages of Micha and Falou to the south-west of the town.

The Nationalists are said to be pressing strongly at Atalaja, to north of Onda.

In the Alcora sector the Republicans succeeded in capturing important positions to the north-west of Salto de Caballo.

On the eastern front the position remains unchanged.—(Transocean).

REIGN OF REASON

THE GOVERNMENT of Great Britain has concluded pacts with numerous countries, and the possibilities of negotiation are not yet exhausted.

It is fitting that the grand exemplar of democracy should keep alive the pure flame of Reason. The people of the British Empire, who profit greatly by such methods, can but be deeply thankful.

There will be admiration for the restraint, the optimism, the patience, and the unfailing good humour which characterises the overtures and the discussions.

In earlier days it pleased the people of Europe, or rather a few writers who aspired to represent the people of Europe, gently to twit the frigid aloofness and the insular self-satisfaction of John Bull.

* * *

BRITISH statesmanship no longer resembles that harmless caricature of its real nature. John Bull has become the best mixer of the old world. It probably remains true, however, that the insularity of Britain renders her peculiarly fitted for the role of mediator.

There is no actual contiguity to engender suspicion or cause irritation in other countries. Britain has no territorial aspirations anywhere, and certainly none in Europe.

NO SUSPICION OR IRRITATION

Nor is her integrity threatened. The efforts to preserve peace can be unceasing and unequivocal without risk of an unworthy taunt that "the lady doth protest too much."

The Empire suffers from no sense of wrong or of injustice; no wounded pride for her people to seek to avenge. Britain is desirous of submitting all questions at home and abroad to the arbitrament of justice.

There is great consolation in this. It is not only satisfactory in itself, but it bodes well for the world. Since the beginning of the Great War there has been no real peace in Europe.

* * *

TO THOSE who have lived through those years, the unrest appears to have been without intermission. No person under 35 years of age has known a world in which there have not been wars or rumours of wars.

As a page in history, this period, so considerable in the life of an individual, is really short. The harrowing conditions will certainly pass away.

REALLY SHORT PERIOD

Countries will not respond indefinitely to appeals for the deification of force.

They will not entertain for all time feelings of hatred and mutual suspicion. The law of action and reaction will inevitably apply. Violence will beget counter-violence for a time, but eventually passion will exhaust itself as its futility and its destructiveness are revealed by the light of common sense.

In aiming at its ultimate purpose British statesmanship employs the appropriate weapon. By the conclusion of the pact with Italy, friendly relations have been advanced, and to the extent that this has been accomplished it is unnecessary to scrutinise the merits of the bargain on either side.

The internal affairs of the Empire have been vastly improved by the agreement with the Government of Eire, as the Irish Free State will for the future be known. A better spirit has been created between the two Governments, and the people of both countries will reap the advantage.

* * *

TRANSCENDING all these considerations is the solid foundation of British institutions. No European country—certainly no country that took a part in the Great War—rests on such a solid foundation internally as does Great Britain.

There are no rumblings to suggest explosive forces. Whatever political changes take place, it is certain that the British people will face the world under government resting upon the will of the people and inspired by the principles of freedom.

WILL OF THE PEOPLE

That which they preach to the world for the world's benefit, they practise for their own. There may be better systems of government, but assuredly no other part of the world has found them.

CHINA WILL FIGHT ON

HONG KONG, JUNE 19.

THE FIRST ANNIVERSARY of the Sino-Japanese war is almost at hand but so far there is no sign as to when it will all end. Indeed it would appear that the war is destined to drag on for some time yet to come due chiefly to two things, namely the determination of the Chinese to fight to the bitter end and the inability of the Japanese to beat China to her knees—a thing that Japan's astute spokesmen felt could be achieved in just a matter of weeks.

Twelve months of fighting has revealed to the world at large that Japan is far from being a first class power—a distinction that was for some reason or other conferred upon a people unworthy of anything of that sort. During the same twelve months Japan has shown herself in her true colours and it is indeed surprising that nothing has been done by the Powers to bring home the fact to Japan that she cannot do as she pleases, even though she may claim that she is merely waging this war for the salvation of East Asia.

When the "incident" of July 7, 1937 startled the world by the rapidity with which it developed into a major crisis, many felt that Japan was on her way to another conquest after the fashion of Manchukuo. But those people who formed this opinion reckoned without the Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek who quietly but surely welded the country into one and so successful was he at that task that it did not take the Japanese war lords long to realise that they were up against a very different proposition this time. Having pledged themselves to the civil population of Japan that they would conquer China in a matter of weeks, the Japanese militarists, proud souls that they are, felt it would not do to go back on their word so blindly they pushed forward, caring naught how much money was spent, or how many lives sacrificed so long as there was a chance for them to attain their objective. Boatload after boatload of innocent youth was sent from Japan to North China to help beat the Chinese into subjection and when the ships returned to Tokyo what cargo had they? Dead and wounded soldiers.

But the Japanese war lord does not see things like an ordinary human being. Maddened by his desire for more territory he turns a blind eye to all the misery and suffering that is caused by his greed and even though homes are wrecked in Japan itself owing to the China Campaign, he not only orders the war to go on but also induces the Government to introduce new taxes in order to raise funds to finance the campaign.

Patriotic people that they are the Japanese civilians likewise close their eyes to realities and just as blindly dig into their pockets to help the good cause. After they had done this for a time, however, a number of them thought that being patriotic was, after all, not such a paying proposition and they began to ask questions about the return of the money loaned by them for the war and these questions became increasingly embarrassing for the war lords as time went on. The result is that from just a handful of dissatisfied people in the Land of the Rising Sun the movement caught on and soon the whole of the non-fighting classes began to talk about an anti-war movement.

Hoping to quell the unrest for a time at least drastic changes were made in Tokyo and these included the appointment of General Ugaki as Foreign Minister in the place of Mr. Koki Hirota. Almost immediately after this change the air raids on Canton commenced. It is needless for us to say how ruthlessly these were launched and are still being carried out. Suffice to mention that so terrible has been the mass murder of innocent civilians, women and children mostly, that indignation meetings have been held all over the world and only on Friday one took place locally when the activities of the Japanese air force, barbarous in the extreme, were deplored unanimously by a gathering which included the heads of the Churches here as well as representatives from all walks of life.

These protests, we fear, will be of no avail. The Japanese fighting forces have got entirely out of hand and nothing short of a world-wide boycott will be able to bring them to their senses. There is already a private boycott against Japan but until such time as all the civilised world make the announcement that they will sever all economic relations with Japan unless a stop is put to the murderous activities of her fighting forces, we feel that these barbarities will remain unchecked.

The Chinese, let it be said, are by no means disheartened by the havoc wrought by the bombs dropped by the savage Japanese airmen on open cities and even hamlets and villages. They are determined to fight on and it is this spirit of theirs more than anything else, that is breaking the morale of the Japanese. It is never a pleasant thing to fight a losing battle but when one has to think of the amends one would have to make eventually, the outlook is darker than ever. That is the position with which Japan is faced today and it will not be long before it will be China's turn to call the tune.

Germany Forcing Out Jews

London, June 13.

The plight of Jews in Germany was related today by Dr. Goldman, Chairman of the Administrative Committee of the Jewish Congress.

Dr. Goldman declared that Germany was trying to coerce Jews in other parts of the world to rescue their co-nationals from Germany.

He added that unless the German authorities allowed Jews to take away part of their worldly belongings, all the Jews in the world could not provide enough money to provide a living for penniless Jews from Germany.—(Reuter).

R.A.M.C. DANCE IS SUCCESS

Crooning, Foxtrot Prize Winners

The Flannel Dance given by the Royal Army Medical Corps at the Hotel Cecil on Saturday night was an unqualified success and great was in the enthusiasm shown in the finals of the crooning and fox trot competitions which were decided in the course of the evening.

The ballroom was tastefully decorated for the function and music was supplied by the Philippine Orchestra.

Sergt.-Major A. A. Barton, chairman of the committee, discharged the duties of Master of Ceremonies very capably.

The final of the crooning competition was won by Mr. A. Drake singing "Goodnight, my love," while the foxtrot competition was won by Mr. Brown and Mrs. Switham.

Among those present S.-M. and Mrs. Barton, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Colledge, Mr. and Mrs. Dernford and Mr. and Mrs. Sando.

Another Flannel Dance will be held on Saturday, June 25, at the Hotel Cecil, starting at 8.30 p.m.

Over 8,000 guests have been invited to attend the village church for the wedding.

Police anticipate that there will be 200,000 spectators.—(Reuter.)

Hello & Goodbye

—BY A. W. HYER—

What goes on here?

There has been a big rush, almost a stampede these past few days. Coming and going—Big boats and little boats—Big airplanes and little airplanes—Big people and The Little man.

Everyone and everything all geared up to fast action knocking for a loop the good old reputation of "slow motion in the far east."

Variety being the spice of life or something, we bumped into it this weekend.—All this has us a bit "discobobalated."

M. V. Toulouse.

A NINE-MONTH vacation for the charming Mrs. H. F. Sommers, who sailed yesterday for the United States, via Los Angeles and Panama ports, ultimate destination, Washington, D.C.

The Colony will certainly feel the absence of this gracious hostess as much as Dr. Sommers (he owns a big comfortable chair and a lovely little drill which buzzes and buzzes) and son Dick who have been left behind to hold down the fort.

Mrs. Sommers' departure and goodbye has been well celebrated by parties, parties and more parties. But those sea breezes will not dispell the memories she has of her home and friends in Hong Kong whom she was sorry to leave.

Another equally hectic goodbye was given Mrs. W. Wright of the Colony, who left on the M. V. Toulouse for the States and a visit to the home hearth.

Bon Voyage and pleasant days to you both.

President McKinley

THE AMERICAN MERCHANT Marine and the American Navy will have a chummy time on their way to San Francisco via Japan. The President McKinley's complete passenger list was Navy Senior and Juniors when she sailed Friday, 5 p.m.

Lieut. Commander W. Bowles (U.S.N. Medical Corps.) was the only embarker from Hong Kong, all other passengers joined ship at Manila.

A sad mission falls to Lieut. Commander Bowles—the care and delivery to the 12th Naval District, the remains of Chester E. Price, U.S.N. of the U.S.S. Monocacy, who passed away suddenly in Kiukiang, China.

President McKinley Arrival.

THURSDAY, 7 A.M. UP from Manila on the President McKinley came Mr. T. L. Overing.

A Canadian, and they are always such nice people, Mr. Overing is the Assistant Superintendent of Agencies in the eastern division of the Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada. He is paying his respects to all the company offices out here—Inspection is the term, and the meaning of his visit.

After a short stay in the Colony, and we hope you find business going strong, Mr. Overing will call at Shanghai and Japan, then home to Vancouver.

We will be down to pay our respects on your departure for the north.

Pan American Airways

"JUMPING MEMEIES"—When the Hawaiian Clipper, Wednesday, 3.10 p.m. was delivered by Captain Beer (excuse, but no one knew your initials and we are sure they are not H.B. or U.B.!) the rain, she was coming down, our twin had evidently taken time out, and people just kept stepping from the Clipper to the jetty. Eighteen passengers—well, we went to work.

Mr. Phil Delany and his Pan American Airways were hosts Wednesday evening to seven Manila transportation officials who arrived on the Clipper.

Mr. Percy Tinan, Baguio's Publicity Manager, Mr. F. De La Cruz, Cruz Travel Agency, Mr. R. Yamson, Philippine Travel Agency, Mr. C. Boehm, Lloyd Triestino, Mr. F. Sulzbach, PAA of the Baguio Office, Mr. L. Heng and Mr. Go Nay Chiu, PAA Chinese Travel Representatives in Manila. Seeing the sights of the Colony; Hong Kong Hotel cocktail party, dinner party and such were part of their short stay.

Mr. Delany must be an excellent host (besides baseballer) as all his guests embarked Thursday a.m. with smiles, good wishes and promises of a quick return visit.

A customer from Alameda was Mr. R. V. Rhode connected with the United States Federal government.

Mr. Rhodes, an aeronautical engineer and a member of the American National Advisory Committee has his headquarters at Langley Field, Virginia, in the Structural Research Department.

The over night visit to Hong Kong was hardly enough time for this gentleman and he regretted the short call. Due to the installation in the Hawaiian Clipper of special equipment and instruments which Mr. Rhode is using in his survey and research work on this trip, he had to make the complete round trip with no stop-overs. But he hopes to be back some day for a real visit.

A Hawaiian Clipper, Manila bound passenger was Miss Mary Nejedly and on a vacation.

Miss Nejedly is the popular young lady in the Hong Kong PAA office who takes all the punches for Mr. P. Delany, and whose humorous personality is appreciated by all in the Colony.

Have a good time Miss Nejedly and say hello to that Army and Navy Club owl, the old hooter.

Empress of Canada

FRIDAY, 7 A.M. CAPTAIN W. T. KINLEY stopped by in his Empress of Canada, a full passenger list and plenty of cargo.

Out from New York came Mr. W. B. Courtney representing Colliers Weekly magazine.

He is very interested in the "Shenanigans" going on in the far east and will spend a few weeks gathering material for publication.

The mob was terrific, maybe an accident in front of the Purser's Office—but no it turned out to be friends and relations greeting Mr. Y. C. Yang, charge d'Affaires of the Chinese Embassy at Tokyo who had arrived on the Empress of Canada with five members of the Embassy staff, all proceeding to China. We hope to gather some information regarding this important gentleman when we meet with him again out at Kai Tak.

Two other travelleurs we did not locate were Mr. S. Matsumoto, representative of Domei News Agency in from Shanghai and Mr. E. W. Langden, of Langden and Co., Shanghai. They both will be returning to the north and we will nab them on their departure.

Ten p.m. raining—out for Manila same day Empress of Canada:

Miss E. M. Hartley Smith again has the travel bug. This time her ticket reads, Manila, Hong Kong, Shanghai and Japan, which puts her back home in Vancouver after a delightful winter here in the Colony and other southern ports.

Miss Smith is a regular Hong Kong winter visitor, and this summer weather being too much for her she packs for home.

We will say auvoir when you leave next week, and we hope your short round trip to Manila is a pleasant one.

A short business trip takes Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Gibson of the Standard Oil Company of New York to Manila.

It was 9.45 p.m., hot, sticky—Mr. Gibson in his cabin was persuing a good book—so what could we do?

Are people more grouchy in the A.M. or P.M. we still debate?

We hope your trip is successful Mr. Gibson.

There were several more ocean carriers in port, but we must leave them until Thursday, and too, you will have a big dose on Imperial Airways.

BRITAIN AND AMERICA SHOULD NOW RALLY TO THE HELP OF CHINA

Arms Wanted For The Defence Of An Innocent Nation

POWERS URGED TO TAKE IMMEDIATE ACTION

(The following is an interview granted to the Hong Kong Daily Press by Mr. Eugene Chen, former Foreign Minister of China)

The Japanese declare they are not waging war in China. That is true. It is not war but a massacre, a ruthless, pitiless massacre of practically unarmed Chinese that Japan is carrying out in China. The latest operation in this strategy of savagery is the bombardment of Canton and its impending destruction not only as the politically vital centre of South China but as the historic gateway of British commerce into the the rich "hinterland" on which the life of Hong Kong depends.

There is also massacre on the battlefront. The old Chinese army was decimated in the course of the terrific encounters in the Shanghai-Nanking region. It is largely a new army that has been fighting since then, consisting partly of young men from the Universities destroyed by the Japanese, and the sons of well-to-do families and peasant homes, namely, the father of tomorrow—those destined, in happier circumstances, to perpetuate the race and to be the rulers and workers of tomorrow in China.

This new army is likely to go the same road of death because, sometimes, there are but three thousand rifles in a division of fifteen thousand men.

American and European democracy is not free of responsibility for this work of death. A decade ago China stood at the crossroads to decide whether to turn East or West. She turned West for peace and collective security on the faith of the pledged words of the United States of America, of Great Britain, of France and other Powers.

JAPANESE DOCTRINE REJECTED

We accepted the Western view, particularly the American thesis which based the peace and security of nations on renunciation of war as an instrument of national policy and on the rule of law; and we rejected the Japanese doctrine that Far Eastern peace and security must be based on the expulsion of the West, of the White Man, from Asia and the Pacific.

We refuse to accept American and British delay to assist China as a repudiation of treaty obligations; and we hope to see the Government of the United States and His Britannic Majesty's Government insisting in the sense of action (as President Roosevelt and Mr. Cordell Hull have been insisting) that observance of the pledged word is an essential condition of civilized life.

SOLDIERS NOT WANTED

We do not ask for American or British soldiers to be sent. We have enough men. But we want arms, arms for defence against a nation that has gotten prosperous in the business of war.

Less than half of one per cent. of the eventual cost of American and British intervention in the new world war under preparation by Japan and her allies (American and British rearmament envisage this eventuality) would provide China with the means to deal decisively with the Japanese and eliminate them as a serious menace to the security of the American people and of the British Empire.

Not only on the ground of principle and honour but on that of sheer, materialist profit and hard-boiled realism, it would pay the American and British Governments to redeem, even partially, their solemnly pledged words to the Chinese people.

Mr. De Valera

EIRE GOES TO THE POLLS

De Valera's Success Hinges On Votes Of Labour

Dublin, June 18.

Eire polled today in one of the most important elections in years. There are 1,250,000 voters, of whom half are women.

Whether Mr. Eamon de Valera gets a clear majority is uncertain, as it depends on how Labour polls, and the hostility between Labour and Feanna Fail grows in this election.

The opinion is held that if Mr. de Valera fails to obtain a majority, there may be another election in October, as there is no inclination for a de Valera-Cosgrave Coalition.

Counting begins tomorrow, and owing to the complicated proportional representation system, the results will not be known before Tuesday.—(Reuter).

JAPANESE REJECT PROTEST

Tokyo, June 18.

The Soviet protest against Japanese air raids on unprotected Chinese towns was sharply rejected by the Japanese Foreign Office here yesterday.

Moscow's right to make representations in this connection was challenged by the Foreign Office which advised Soviet Russia to instruct its own pilots in Spain to cease bombing open Nationalist towns or to attempt any interference in the Sino-Japanese conflict.

The Japanese answer furthermore declared that the Chinese towns were not bombed indiscriminately but that such cities as Canton, Nanking and Hankow which possess extensive fortifications were singled out for air raids.—(Transocean).

PEASANTS, TROOPS WORK IN CLOSE CO-OPERATION

Loyang, June 19.

Though nominally under Japanese occupation, many hsien in Shantung and north Honan are still administered by officials appointed by the National Government, according to a Chinese commanding officer in north Honan.

Close co-operation the commanding officer revealed, is maintained between the Chinese peasants and troops in north Honan. The peasants either withdraw to safety areas or leisurely engage in farming upon the arrival of a large enemy force. But as soon as this large force is broken up into small isolated units, they begin to attack them separately. They also actively disrupt the enemy's supply lines.

A Chinese column, the commanding officer stated marched from the west of Tsinan through Puhsien, Puyang, Taming, and Hsunteh into north Honan and recaptured Tsiyuan toward the end of last month.—(Central News).

REPUBLICANS OFFER STIFF RESISTANCE

Nationalists Checked Along Entire Mediterranean Front

Barcelona, June 19.

Notwithstanding the fall of Castellon and the end of the resistance of the 43th "Lost" Division in the Pyrenees, the Republicans are fighting back.

On the Mediterranean front, the Nationalist advance appears to be checked along the whole line.

Heavy fighting is reported south of Castellon, where the Nationalists are receiving the strongest resistance.

Gandi was again visited on Friday night by Insurgent planes Two were killed and six injured when bombs dropped in the outskirts.—(Reuter).

WITHDRAWAL OF VOLUNTEERS FROM SPAIN

Italy Seeking Modification In Agreement

London, June 19.

According to Sunday papers here, the Italian Government has expressed the desire that conditions regarding the evacuation of Italian volunteers from Spain, as laid down in the Anglo-Italian Agreement on April 16 last, should be modified so as to permit Italian troops to remain in the peninsula while not taking any further part in military operations there.

The Sunday Times remarks, in this connection, that it is difficult to see how the British Government could change its point of view in the question of repatriation of volunteers. The paper says that it can only be hoped that Tuesday's sitting of the Non-Intervention Committee will mark further progress in the negotiations.

The paper eulogises the efforts made by France to induce the Soviet Union to adopt a more conciliatory attitude and stresses the uselessness of attempts made by the press of other countries to separate France and England in the Spanish question by attacks on alleged violations of neutrality by the French Government.

The Observer writes that the situation in Spain has been modified since the conclusion of the Anglo-Italian Agreement of last April.—(Transocean).

Eye-Witness Tells Of Fighting On Yangtse River Front

Kwelchih, Anhwei, June 19.

"Soaked in rain and flood and braving continuous Japanese naval and aerial bombardment, the Chinese troops on the south bank of the Yangtse River are stoutly resisting Japanese landing," writes a Central News correspondent who is touring the Yangtse front.

"I arrived at the Chinese line on the south bank at 9 o'lock this morning. Despite rain and heavy fog, seven or eight Japanese planes were flying low over the river embankment," he writes.

"There were then no Japanese warships anchored in the river at this point. Barely two hours ago three enemy gunboats had arrived not far ahead. About 80 Japanese bluejackets from these gunboats, who attempted to land were driven back.

"The Japanese planes were now flying even lower before. The Chinese soldiers were still lurking in their trenches.

"About 9.30 o'clock a Japanese warship was suddenly sighted steaming downstream. As it passed by the dyke where I was standing, I saw the Red Cross insignia painted on its side."

"A moment later two other Japanese warships were seen steaming downstream. As they came near the Chinese positions one of them fired over 20 shells, No damage was done to the Chinese defence works.

"About noon it was reported that four large Japanese warships were steaming upriver. Upon hearing the report all Chinese officers and soldiers were ready for action.

"Intensive bombardment followed. However, not one shell hit the Chinese.

"Whilst shelling, the Japanese warships continued to steam upriver. Three seaplanes escorted the fleet.

"Not long after six Japanese launches came upriver and weighed anchor, after which scores of blue-jackets were landed at several places.

"The Chinese commanding officer now gave the order to open fire with machine-guns. Many of the Japanese were trapped in the mud and could hardly move.

"In the face of the fierce attack by the Chinese the Japanese returned to their warship."—(Central News).

JAPANESE ATTACK FLOOD REFUGEES

Chengchow, June 19.

Japanese troops in Honan are reported to have attacked Chinese refugees fleeing westward in the face of the great flood.

Only a few days ago thousands of refugees were attacked by the Japanese at Yushih, 45 kilometres southwest of Kaifeng. Large numbers were killed or wounded by machine-gun and artillery fire.

It is learned that over 100,000 refugees are being accommodated in camps established by the Chinese military authorities west of the Peiping-Hankow Railway.—(Central News).

Italy And Yugoslavia

MINISTERS DISCUSS COLLABORATION

Venice, June 19.

M. Stoyadinovitch, Foreign Minister of Yugoslavia, had a two hours' conversation with the Italian Foreign Minister, Count Ciano, here today, after which the former left to continue his holiday at Gardine.

It is learned that political and economic collaboration between Italy and Yugoslavia was discussed. On the political side, it is not believed that the consultations exceeded an exchange of views on the European situation.

ITALIAN RELIEF

It is believed that an increase in trade between the two countries is probably owing to the anschluss, with the consequent relief to Italy from her undertaking to help Austria economically.

It is also believed that orders will be given by Yugoslavia for the building of some warships in Trieste.—(Reuter).

INVESTIGATION OF MONOPOLIES

Washington, June 18.

President Roosevelt today signed the resolution for investigation of monopolies in the United States.

The investigation will be conducted by a commission of twelve, consisting of Senators, Representatives and delegates from the Departments of Commerce, Labour and Justice, together with representatives of the Treasury, the Federal Trade Commission and the Securities Exchange Commission.

The investigation, recommended in a Presidential message on April 30, is expected to create a basis for wide revision of the Anti-Trust Law.—(Reuter).

BACK TO NORMAL

Canton, June 19.

As an indication that Canton is returning to normal in spite of the relentless Japanese raids, shops in Wing Hon Road today re-opened for business.

Rice prices are dropping owing to the departure of many people to the outports and the interior of the province. Demand for Hong Kong banknotes has also relaxed with the result the Hong Kong dollar is valued at $2.34 Canton currency.—(International).

HAPPY BIRTHDAY!

Wally Hammond, captain of the English Test cricket team, who celebrated his 35th birthday yesterday.

W.R. HAMMOND: 35 NOT OUT

ENGLISH SKIPPER HAD BIRTHDAY YESTERDAY

Has Magnificent Test Record

(BY "NEW L. B. W.")

Yesterday Walter Reginald Hammond, one of the two most famous present-day cricketers, and Captain of the English Test Team, celebrated his 35th birthday, and all the good wishes of the cricketing world went out to him.

It is a little under ten years ago that Hammond burst into the international cricket firmament. Fresh from his triumphs in the English seasons of 1927 and 1928, he was one of the first choices for the M.C.C. side which toured Australia in 1928-9 under the captaincy of Percy Chapman, and there he astounded the Australians with exhibitions of batting such as had never previously, and never since, been given by any other visiting player.

Century after century came from his bat, eight in all in the small total of 13 first-class matches, and he wound up the tour with the astounding figures of 18 innings, 1 not out, 1,553 runs, average 91.35.

AMAZING 1928-29 FIGURES

But it was in the Test matches that he touched his greatest heights. A comparative failure in the first Test, when he totalled only 72 runs in the two innings, his figures thereafter were such as to defy comparison with those of any other Englishman for one series' work, whether at Home or abroad.

They were:—

251 (Second Test);
200 and 32 (Third);
119 not out and 177 (Fourth);
38 and 16 (Fifth).

These scores gave him the amazing average of 113.12, thus:—9 ins.; 905 runs; 1 not out; highest score 251 average 113.12.

Hammond has never since equalled, or even approached, the great feats of his debut year, but he has maintained a certain degree of consistency, and today his "life" Test figures (vs. Australia only, of course, up to and including the 1936-7 tour) of 44 ins.; 2,281 runs; 3 not outs; highest score 251; 8 centuries; average 55.63, are better than those of any other Englishman who has played in more than two Test series, with one single exception——Herbert Sutcliffe.

HOW WILL HE DO?

Now in the prime of his career, the second greatest Gloucestershire cricketer of all time began this season by becoming an amateur. The English Board of Control conferred upon him the highest honour that can fall to an active English cricketer.

How will he acquit himself? In the first Test just concluded, he was forced to a draw after having compelled the Australians to follow on and his own contribution to England's record score was only 26. But from the cabled reports his handling of the bowling and all-round generalship were very good.

He is indeed facing a tough proposition in having to offset not only the batting skill, but also the ingenuity and canniness of the great Bradman. We will know in a few short months how he gets through the ordeal. Englishmen and English supporters will voice the fervent hope that he will lead the Old Country to as great a victory as it has ever enjoyed.

SWIMMING INTERPORT RESUMED?

It is understood that there is a good chance of the Interport swimming series between Hong Kong and Shanghai, which had to be discontinued last year, being resumed this season.

Correspondence has passed between Mr. D. F. Lopes, Hon. Secretary of the Victoria Recreation Club, and Mr. J. Huxley, Chairman of the Shanghai Amateur Swimming Association, and the outlook is fairly bright.

The question of venue, however, is a difficulty, but it is hoped that all obstacles will be overcome and that the fight for the Taggart Shield will be held here later in the year.

SOUTH CHINA AQUATICS

South China A.A. will stage their third swimming gala on Thursday next, commencing at 1 p.m.

The programme consists of 11 events, including the following Open races:—Men's 500 Metres Relay, Ladies' 200 Metres Free-Style, Men's 100 Metres Free-Style.

A water-polo match will conclude the programme.

RECONSTRUCTION PROGRAMME FOR PROVINCE OF HUPEH

TECHNICAL IMPROVEMENT WILL BE GIVEN SPECIAL EMPHASIS

The authorities of the Hupeh Provincial Government in Central China, where Hankow is located, have launched a far-reaching wartime reconstruction programme which calls, among other things, for increasing production and foreign trade and for improving hydraulic and other public works in the province.

Most important in the four-fold project which is to be carried out under the direction of the Hupeh Provincial Reconstruction Bureau is a campaign for the promotion of industries.

Special emphasis will be laid on the technical improvement of the tea crop so that more and better tea may be exported. Provisions for excavating some of the rich coal deposits in Hupeh have also been made, and when the funds are available, excavation work on these mines will be started.

Meanwhile, the Reconstruction Bureau, assisted by the Central Government, will do everything within its power to reopen cotton mills and factories for the manufacture of flax and linen.

Rural rehabilitation forms the second heading in the Hupeh reconstruction programme. According to the plans, more workers trained in the agricultural experimental stations will be sent out to teach the farmers how to improve their seeds and increase their produce.

Simultaneously, $400,000 will be loaned to the peasants in the farming districts of Kwanghwa Suchen, Tsokshan, Tsokchien and Fonghsien who are urgently in need of funds to carry on their farming. With the collaboration of the Farmers' Banks of China, the Reconstruction Bureau will establish ten co-operative financial houses in the ten Hupeh districts for the explicit purpose of easing the flow of capital in the rural areas. Each financial house will be backed by a reserve fund of $100,000, which will be advanced by the Farmers' Bank.

REPAIR OF DYKES

The repair of breached dykes along the Yangtse River and the Han Kiang comes next in the reconstruction programme of Hupeh Province. The problem of water conservancy is particularly serious this year as the Yangtse River below Kiukiang in Kiangsi Province has been blocked by the Chinese military authorities.

Detailed measures in respect to dyke and dam reconstruction works have been worked out and every possible step will be taken to minimise the flooding of the mighty Yangtse and its tributaries.

Embodied in the last reconstruction item is a vast scheme for a more elaborate network of highways in Hupeh province. In December, 1936, there were 4,438 kilometres of roads, both paved and earth, open for traffic; while the numbers of kilometres under construction and projected were 327 and 1,068 respectively.

The shift of the war scene to the interior immediately called for more direct and better paved highways. One of the prospects was to elevate the Hankow-Ichang highway so that more safety can be attained while travelling overland to China's hinterland.—(China Information Committee).

WARPLANES GIFT FROM CHINA'S OUTER PROVINCE

Sinkiang or Chinese Turkestan, often branded as the Oriental Ethnological Museum because of its complex racial composition, is today a solid block of 4,000,000 people behind the Central Government China's war of self-defence against Japan.

According to the latest information from that westernmost Chinese province, people in Sinkiang despite the fact that they are of at least fourteen different racial groups, have presented the Central Government with ten planes at an aggregate cost of about $1,000,000 which they raised among themselves since the war.

On April 12, which marked the fifth anniversary of the coup d'etat which placed its present governor General Sheng Shih-tsai—a fervent disciple of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek—into power in 1933, more than 500,000 people or about one-eighth of the total population in the province, turned out at mass meetings held at various principal cities to pledge their support at the other end of China.

MUCH PROGRESS

During the last five years, Sinkiang has made considerable progress in politics, in educaton and in economic reconstruction.

The importance of Sinkiang as China's hinterland during her war of resistance against Japan and as one of her principal routes of receiving supplies from the outside world is great indeed.

Governor Sheng has let no chance go by without emphasizing this point at every public gathering in Tihua, the provincial capital according to news from that Chinese border province.—(China Information Committee).

SHARE MARKET REVIEW

Buyers Hold Back

BY C. A. L. RICKETT
Member—Secretary
Hong Kong Sharebrokers' Assn.

Selling on a small scale has been encountered during the the week and prices have given way to some extent. Buyers are inclined to await the trend of events in South China.

On the other hand sellers, desirous of liquidating their positions, have found themselves forced to accept sparsely offered bids, in most cases, below quoted prices. Business has, therefore, been very restricted and the turnover small. Towards the close of business, however, there was evidence of more extended enquiries for the more popular stocks at rather lower prices.

Trams came in for most attention and remained steady at $16.50 to $16.55. Providents (consolidated, old) were wanted at $6, and the new shares at $5.80. Hotels were wanted at $6.10 and Electrics at $57. China Lights (o) had buyers at $10.20 and sellers at $10.30. Wharves could be obtained at $125 and Lands at $34. Small lots of Union Insurance shares could be obtained at $500, and Star Ferries at $85.

Gold Mining stocks have remained quiet with prices practically unchanged.

Benguet Consolidated Mining Co. has declared a 30 ctvo interim dividend, payable on June 30. Antamok Goldfields have declared an interim dividend of 2 ctvs, payable on July 15, and I.X.L. Mining Co. an interim of 4 ctvs, payable on the same date.

DECREASE OF COPPER PRODUCTION

London, June 17.

On behalf of copper producing companies operating under the Restriction Scheme, it is officially announced that, as from July 1, production will be decreased from 105 to 95 per cent. of the agreed basic tonnages.—(Reuter.)

STABILISATION

New York, June 17.

The reduction in the foreign copper production quota is believed to be due to the decline in foreign consumption during the month of May, together with the approaching summer quietness.

While some firming of prices is expected the reduction is not regarded as drastic, but more as another step towards stabilisation of the foreign copper situation. —(Reuter.)

WOLFRAM PRICE

London, June 17.

There was a good demand for wolfram on the Stock Market today, with good general consumer and speculative interest.

With buyers following up the advance and sellers still inclined to ask higher prices, market circles favour the view that the present circumstances warrant high levels for some time to come, especially as it is believed that Japan is likely to be enquiring for further supplies shortly. —(Reuter.)

CANADA'S RETAIL TRADE

Canada's retail trade showed an increase of ten per cent in 1937, according to a preliminary estimate made by the governmental statistical office.

The sales for 1937 at $2,430,000,000 were the highest since 1930.

The 1937 sales were still 12 per cent below 1930, but they were 36 per cent above the low point reached in 1933.

Sales gained ten per cent in 1934, five per cent in 1935 and seven per cent in 1936.

"A WEALTH of HEALTH"

"I mean to express with all my heart that your Kalzana has given wonderful results in my little girl, who was ailing for some time," writes a grateful mother.

If your Child is ailing then give it Kalzana

If any of your children are delicate and irritable, suffer from delayed teething and weak bones, it is more than probable that a lack of minerals is the cause of the trouble.

Give your children Kalzana tablets or powder for a few weeks and you will soon see the difference in their health. It strengthens the cells of blood, body and nerves, increases the power of resistance and makes bones strong, and teeth white and healthy.

Give Kalzana to the grown-up members of your family, and they, too, will enjoy continual good health.

LIBRARY OF WAR TIME LITERATURE

The Library of Wartime Literature, established in March 1938, by several Chinese newspaper editors in Hankow, has come to be regarded as an indispensable institution to students and commentators of the Sino-Japanese war and by organizations serving the cultural needs of the people.

Perhaps to call this unique institution a library is not strictly accurate. Besides carrying publications for circulation and operating at least twenty reading rooms, the library also serves as a book purchasing agent.

While the headquarters of the library are located in Hankow its service is extended to many far-off corners of the country.

Scores of letters from its clients are received daily, some coming from soldiers on active service at the front, or even from guerilla fighters in the Shansi mountains.

The library is principally financed by contributions voluntarily made by people who are interested in the undertaking. It also receives a small income clients who make remittances for book purchases.

COST NOT COVERED

The Kiangsi Provincial Government, for instance, recently remitted $2,000 to the library for special book purchases. But earnings from this source are barely sufficient to cover the cost of the library's contribution of books to organizations which are in need of books but have not the means to purchase them.

Since its establishment, the library has been asked for books by many public and private organizations. Among them are provincial libraries and civic organizations in widespread areas.

As the name implies, the library only deals with publications having some bearing on the current hostilities. It has on its shelves a complete file of all magazines, books, pamphlets and pictorials published in China since the outbreak of the war.

Local patrons of the library may visit any one of its twenty branches in the Wuhan cities. Each branch has a different array of publications. At regular intervals, the contents of one branch are shifted to another locality, so that all subscribers are given access to a supply of fresh reading materials. The library plans to establish branches in such cities as Anching, Hsinyang, Changsha, Canton and Chengchow.—(C.I.C.).

Fresh Anti-Jewish Move

Berlin, June 19.

A fresh anti-Jewish move was made this evening when the police ordered all Jewish shopkeepers to have their names painted on their windows in letters 18 inches high and six inches broad, in white paint. As the lettering must be placed in the middle of the windows it detrimentally affects the display of goods. The Jews were instructed to carry out the order before closing time last night, hence there was a frantic rush for sign painters. The apparent object of the order is to make clear Jewish ownership of businesses.—(Reuter).
